Supervisors Prepare for New Board

Hancock County supervisors tied up several loose ends at a lengthy meeting Monday preparing a clean slate for three newly elected board members who go into office Jan. 7.

Mrs. Joe Hughes, assistant home demonstration agent in Pike County, was elected to replace Mrs. Talmadge Mauldin, Hancock County agent, who resigned effective Dec. 1. Mrs. Hughes was presented by Miss Mamie Brock of Hattiesburg, Southeast home demonstration agent, and will begin her duties Jan. 1. She will be accompanied by her husband, who plans to open a watchmaking and repair shop in Bay St. Louis, and her daughter, Betty Jo, 8.

The proposed name change of Hancock County Hospital to Hancock General Hospital was approved after hospital administrator Tom O. Logue suggested that the new name might dispel popular belief that patient bills were paid by the county. He added there were far too many charity applications from the patients.

Hospital Architect W. W. Dawson was advised to investigate cost of additional letters for the name or if a swap could be made with the manufacturing firm after he reported that the letters which will be placed on the new structure had already arrived.

Supervisors agreed the additional cost should be borne by the hospital board, which will have final say on the name change. Logue went over a $51,000 tentative list of new equipment for the hospital and explained he expected to be able to obtain almost all of it from the $48,000 allowed on the budget since the $51,000 was the list price before bids. He said final federal approval was expected in time to begin advertising Dec. 17.

In other hospital matters Dawson was advised to determine total damage to the water pump incurred when a Perillat and Rickey construction worker used it improperly. Clerk A. C. Mitchell is to write the construction firm to determine the authority giving the worker permission to use the pump.

The board approved payment of $1,019.67 to Dawson and $70,934.20 to Perillat and Rickey.

J. P. Rousseau of Clermont Harbor was told by Board Attorney Sam Favre Jr. that the board could not correct past taxation on the Clermont Waterworks but could investigate future taxation. He explained that the board had the right to go back (Cont. on Page 6.)

Santa Claus' Visits Top Holiday Agenda

HO, HO, HO - So laughs Santa Claus from atop a convertible in front of Kern's Saturday after arriving at 2 p.m. He left his reindeer on the other side of the bridge, Santa said.

Lights Up; Legion Sets Kids Party

Christmas officially began in Bay St. Louis this weekend with the arrival of Santa Claus and the lighting of the city's Yule lights.

Several hundred excited children and parents were on hand Saturday afternoon to greet Santa and cheer him on his path to Kern's where he set up shop and visited with each youngster.

Traditional Christmas lighting along the business area of Beach Boulevard and the east end of Main Street were set up over the weekend after merchants from the area agreed to finance the project. Lights along Railroad Avenue across from the L and N station have been strung by cooperating merchants of that area. Lights are also up in the area of A and J Food Store on Main Street and on Uman Avenue from Porter's to Beach Boulevard.

Last week's question of lights or no lights in the downtown area was settled Friday when a group of businessmen decided to solicit funds from the merchants in the area to provide the Christmas lights. Present at the meeting were A. G. Dantagan, Joseph Kern, Robert Hamilton, Gordon J. Gleim, Powell Glass Jr., O. W. Delph and Alden L. Mauffray. Assisting in soliciting funds, but unable to attend the meeting, were Birch Johnston Jr., W. R. Johnson Jr., and J. E. Casanova. The City of Bay St. Louis is footing the electricity for the town as in the past.

Hospital Name Shift Is Approved

Hancock County Hospital will be called Hancock General Hospital, the hospital board decreed Tuesday night.

Trustees acted on the suggestion of Administrator Tom Logue Jr. who felt that the new name would dispel an idea among many patients that the county is responsible for their bill. He added the new name would also lessen confusion between the hospital and other county projects, such as the county home.

The motion was offered by K. W. Pepperdene, seconded by T. T. Reboil. This month's meeting was the last for President Charles Lavinghouse, who will assume duties as county supervisor Jan. 7. Lavinghouse was unable to attend the meeting, presided over by Vice President Hubert Thigpen, but will appoint his successor before the January meeting.

Logue reported that equipment bids for the new hospital can be opened Jan. 6 following a 21-day legal advertising period beginning Dec. 17. (Cont. on Page 6.)

School Board Sets Conveyance Policy

A definite pattern to be used in releasing unused school property to interested organizations was fixed by the County School Board Monday.

Attorney Walter J. Phillips advised trustees to draw up two resolutions, one declaring the property no longer needed and the other releasing the property to the organization requesting it. The organization must signify at the following board meeting by resolution that it is willing to take over the responsibility of the property and prepare a deed.

Phillips will have the forms ready for the board at 9 a.m. Monday.

A delegation from St. Ann's parish Sacred Heart Mission at Dedeaux, led by the Rev. G. J. Johnson, pastor, appeared earlier to request use of the old Dedeaux School and property for recreational and educational purposes.

Father Johnson recalled he had appeared several months ago and was told nothing could be done until November. "We have presented a petition signed by every qualified voter to use the property for church and youth purposes", he said. Part of the property is in Harrison County but before approaching officials there he must have a conveyance from the Hancock board, he said.

Phillips noted it would be necessary to continue fire insurance. Superintendent E. E. Breland said some out of town (Cont. on Page 2.)

School Buses, One Postoffice Eyed by P-TA

Further complaints on the bus situation were heard when the P-TA of North Central School met Tuesday night.

B. T. McCormick, speaking on behalf of the faculty, said teachers could not assume responsibility for teaching the children in first period classes because of the late arrival of the buses and the teachers could not be expected to teach the children if they were not there. Several parents expressed their views which largely coincided with McCormick.

Ways of area residents being serviced by one postoffice were discussed. Mrs. Robert Hudson said the North Central area was serviced by six postoffices, some mail being routed through Harrison county, resulting in great confusion.

Mrs. Hudson was elected chairman of the newly-formed room mothers committee, consisting of 15 members who will work in cooperation with the elementary school.

We're Growing

Hancock Bank opened a new branch Wednesday serving the Mississippi City-Handabara area.

A new eating place in the area, Harvarty's restaurant, a 100 lounge, will have its grand opening Saturday on Coleman Avenue, Waveland.

A new weekly newspaper in the county, the Waveland Advocate, made its first appearance Thursday. With offices at 104 Coleman Ave., Waveland, it will present news of that community. Clement Harvarty and Lawrence (Cont. on Page 2.)

Junior Chamber Information Studied

Meeting with officers of the Jaycees and Ocean Springs Jaycees, a group of local young men met Tuesday night at the Hancock Agency building to study information to organize a Junior Chamber of Commerce here.

Charles Haas, local attorney, appointed temporary chairman of the organization meeting, which was set for 7:30 p.m. at the Courthouse. Haas said he was between 21 and 36 years old and a charter member of the meeting.

Barber Jr., president of Gulfport Jaycees, told the group the No. 1 project is to find out your city needs. He said Gulfport one of their projects is Christmas lighting.

George F. Smith, president of the Ocean Springs unit, talked to the group on the self-improvement program. "You learn to talk to people", he said.

Barber Jr. said that is one of the things a young man can do. After you do your own work then you start working for the Jaycees. We take care of the community at every footstep and so forth."

He said that purpose of the organization are improvement of the community and personal development of its members accomplished through a variety of project activities.

Junior Chamber chapters are located in 3,600 communities in the United States with a total membership of more than 200,000. Internationally, Jaycees chapters exist in more than 88 countries and territories.

Further details may be had from Haas, HO 7-6797 or Charles Thomas, HO 7-6753.

Women Voters Will Observe Governing Units

The recently reactivated League of Women Voters of Hancock County now has at least 50 members, according to Mrs. David L. Polindexter, president.

The league has also started a new project: a representative of the league to attend each meeting of the six major Hancock County political bodies. These are: Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Commission Council of Bay St. Louis, Mayor and Board of Aldermen of Waveland, Hancock County School Board, Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School Board and Hancock General Hospital board of directors.

Those initially taking part in the observation of local governing bodies include Mesdames Polindexter, Paul Loup, John Dougher, Lambert T. Boyd Jr., C. C. McDonald Jr., Richard Mestayer Jr., Herbert Wise, Albert Kuehn, William R. Lamb and Otis M. Wimmer.

Mollere Vehicle Damaged in Mishap

Approximately $150 damage was received by an auto driven by Joseph Mollere of Nicholson Avenue, Waveland, at 8:20 a.m. Thursday when it was struck in the rear by a Winn-Dixie truck and trailer operated by James Pugh of New Orleans, according to Patrolman Fred Curet.

Curet said the Mollere auto stopped for a traffic light at the intersection of U. S. 90 and North Beach Boulevard in Bay St. Louis.

About Yule Trash

Garbage collections in Bay St. Louis will be made Monday through Thursday during Christmas week, according to Mayor John Scaffide. There will be no collection on Christmas Day.

Dunbar Avenue School Name Is Under Study

A name for the new elementary school on Dunbar Avenue will be selected when the board and trustees of the Separate Municipal School District meets again Jan. 7, it was decided by the board last Thursday.

Superintendent Joe D. McCullough said that the name "Dunbar Avenue Elementary School" was used on papers that were executed for the state because some name had to be given but it was not necessarily the intention of the board to use the name. He said a name for the school could be submitted at any time and the public is invited to offer suggestions before the next meeting.

After a discussion of the demand for land in the vicinity of the new school because of the proposed erection of the health center and other buildings, Trustee Maurice J. Artigues moved that board attorney Sam L. (Cont. on Page 4.)

Ward Killer Eludes Law

DEATH BULLET CASING - Sheriff Sylvan J. Lader points to the .45 caliber pistol casing believed to have caused the death Dec. 5 of Tyburt Francis Ward.

Sheriff Sylvan Lader was uncertain today if FBI agents could enter the search for the killer of Tyburt Francis Ward, 58, who was found dead at his home about 4:30 p.m. Sunday by Leonce Rispoli, a neighbor. Ward was believed dead approximately 24 hours upon discovery.

Lader said additional warrants were being issued today for District Attorney Boyce Holleman, who will confer with the FBI, whose Agents were in Hancock County Monday.

A pick-up bulletin to eight Southern states was issued Monday by the sheriff for the arrest of F. H. Jessup, who had been staying with Ward about two months after being laid off from a Detroit, Mich., industrial plant.

A note found at the scene of the crime and bearing the initials "F.H.J.", confessed to the killing and warned officers: "Don't come looking for me, I've got a gun and lots of ammunition." Lader said the note writer claimed he had "no other choice" but to kill Ward.

The killer is believed to have fled in Ward's car, a 1931 green Ford sedan with Mississippi license plate 295-539, and taken rifles, shotguns and pistols from the Ward residence in addition to the death weapon, a .45 caliber pistol.

An inquest jury empaneled at the scene of the crime by Beat 5 Justice of the Peace Nolan S. Lader, acting coroner, returned a verdict of death as a result of a bullet entry into the right side of head just above ear by person or persons unknown, according to Lader.

A partial cranial autopsy performed by Dr. W. A. McFarland attributed death to a gunshot wound in the head. McFarland indicated an additional hole in Ward's head had been caused by blast force, rather than a second shot.

Dr. Henry D. Haberyan, the Mississippi coast's only private pathologist, refused to come to Bay St. Louis and perform the autopsy until the county paid for a previous non-authorized autopsy.

Ward was found seated in a chair, holding an opened sardine can, upside down, head drooping. His clothing and parts of the chair were covered with blood that had oozed from the two holes in his head.

The note left by the killer indicated he and Ward had been drinking and that he is an ex-convict, according to the sheriff. He quoted the note as saying persons who knew Ward would "understand" the killing, but no light has been thrown on the motive as yet, he asserted.

Rispoli told the sheriff the last time he observed Jessup in the area was about 5 p.m. the day before the body was found. Until Jessup arrived, he said, Ward had lived alone since separating from his wife in September.

Welcome Jaycees

An effort is at present under way to organize an active Junior Chamber of Commerce in Bay St. Louis. This organization is known in many, many communities as the one you want behind you if you have a good community project. In that respect they have a record second to no organization.

Membership is limited to persons under 36, and membership usually means good training in civic leadership. Nationally, and in some local areas, Jaycees seem to us to have forgotten that they are a civic, and not a political, organization, though our argument boils down to the meaning of "political."

Jaycees in Bay St. Louis could give a real boost to the community, and this paper believes they will. If eligible, we urge you to join. If you join, be like most Jaycees—a worker.

Politics, not News

Most newspapers have what we would call a Code of Ethics concerning news stories (really we do), and so when a prominent and large paper violates the usual concept, it kinda jars other professional newsmen (and women).

This editor was jarred a couple of weeks ago, when a particularly prominent paper in neighboring Louisiana violated what he considered a fundamental in proper newspapering—editorials and advertisements are identified as such and the reader should never be misled.

The news story that jarred us was from page and top of column. It merely set forth the expenditures of the State of Louisiana during the administrations of the last four governors. It said nothing of services provided, increases in costs of living, increases in income of the state or many other pertinent facts. It merely showed that the governor of Louisiana for the period 1944-48 spent less money than the next succeeding administrations.

We'd like to bet that the Louisiana administration for the period 12 years earlier, 1932-36, spent a whole lot less. We'd like to bet that General Motors, American Telephone and Telegraph, J. C. Penny Company or you name the successful corporation spent more during the period 1956-60 than it did during 1944-48. So what? If successful, they also had even greater receipts.

That our Louisiana colleague had editorially endorsed for Governor in the present election Ex-governor James Davis, who was governor during 1944-48, leads us to feel that the misleading editorial, printed on the front page as a news story, was not an accident.

It's none of our business, directly, who is governor of Louisiana. The reputation of newspapermen is our business. We hate to see our business hurt.

Hancock County's reactivated League of Women Voters have a new project—attendance of one or more representatives at sessions of the major political bodies in Hancock County. It's a fine idea, and the Echo hopes the wordiness of some groups will not dull the league members' enthusiasm.

Mr. Chance Cole, prominent editor of the Picayune (Miss.) Item, and we hope our friend, complains that a column called "Let's Talk Mississippi" hasn't pointed out that Picayune, Mississippi, is the only community of that name in the world.

If we only knew of another Bay St. Louis, we'd say: "Naturally. Who would want to copy Picayune?"

"Gee, Mom, aren't you carrying this dieting too far?"

County Agent Notes

By Howard Simmons

COASTAL BERMUDA

Looks like Mississippi farmers are going to set out a lot of coastal bermuda this year. You can set yours from now until spring.

Here are some tips for more successful results from your settings of coastal: Buy fresh stolons. Don't let them dry out or freeze before you set them.

Set your stolons deeply—only a small portion needs to stick out of the ground.

GRAZE OUT FIELDS

Often as much as 25 per cent of the grain is left in your corn fields after harvest. Livestock will recover most of this loss, if you will turn them in following harvest.

Grazing out harvesting fields will also take some of the strain off your permanent pastures and give legumes a chance to get started.

DAIRY NOTES

Feed your dairy cattle. Dairy cows must be well fed if they are going to produce for you.

Fall feeding can determine how much profit you will make from your dairy cows during the rest of the year.

Regardless of how busy you are these days, don't neglect your herd.

It is mighty important to watch the herd production level and the condition of your cows. Keep the cows producing well by feeding a good grain ration, based on the kinds of roughage you are feeding.

My Favorite Prayer

MISS KATHRYN D. GOODWIN
Director of the Bureau of Public Assistance.
Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D. C.

Give us open minds, O God, minds ready to receive and to welcome such new light of knowledge as it is Thy will to reveal. Let not the past ever be so dear to us as to set a limit to the future. Give us the courage to change our minds, when that is needed. Let us be tolerant of the thoughts of others, for we never know in what voice Thou wilt speak.

Wilt Thou keep our ears open to Thy voice, and make us a little more deaf to whispers of men who would persuade us from our duty, for we know in our hearts that only in Thy will is our purpose and the prosperity of our land. We pray in the lovely name of Jesus.

Area Business Up 8 Per Cent

The Biloxi-Gulfport district during October reported an eight per cent increase in business activity over the same month a year ago, according to The Mississippi Business Review.

The district as a whole showed business up 155 per cent over the 1947-49 base period. Biloxi reported business 175 per cent above the base period; Gulfport, 152 per cent; Bay St. Louis, 106 per cent; Pass Christian, 68 per cent; and Picayune, 103 per cent.

First Special Science Program Is Presented at North Central

The first of two special science lectures addressed the North Central School students today Tuesday in connection with the school's participation in the Mississippi Science Foundation.

Marshall Propst, chemical engineer with Hercules Powder Co. of Hartsburg, also performed technical demonstrations on various scientific principles for the school's science classes.

Propst told the students they didn't have to be geniuses to be scientists, but they had to use their brains.

His demonstrations included the possibilities of use of a bi-product of pine, which "not only guarantees pretty lips (lipstick), but promotes plump pullets and hefty hogs."

North Central is one of 110 state schools included in the program held in cooperation with the National Science Foundation.

A similar speaker is scheduled for January and two class field trips to nearby scientific points will be set later. Oren Seal is director of the school's science department.

Teachers are using part of the building for living quarters, but the trustees were of the opinion it was not their responsibility to house the teachers. Breland reiterated that it was difficult for all schools to obtain teachers and if they had to commute to Bay St. Louis, Kiln or wherever they could find housing, they would prefer to teach elsewhere. He observed that the district was short one teacher, until the day before school opened when a Louisianaian was persuaded to transfer.

Phillips said the part not being used by the teachers could be conveyed but it would take a survey.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, chairman, concurred with Superintendent Breland that the board could not walk out on the responsibility of furnishing teachers a place to live.

At the request of R. E. Webb, superintendent of North Central School, advertising was directed for an eight digit adding and totaling machine for the school.

Mrs. McDonald agreed to confer with Gulfview School trustees about charging independent basketball teams for use of the gymnasium to pay for operating and supervision expenses and will report at the next meeting.

A $823.90 science equipment order from Logtown School of which the federal government will pay half was postponed until funds were available. Principal Oscar Breland was advised to present the order later.

The board agreed a bill from Coast Electric Power Association for school property at Kiln occupied by a teacher will have to be paid by the teacher. Breland is to notify the firm to change the statement to the address of the teacher.

A report on an earlier disciplinary matter at North Central was made by R. E. Webb and the board agreed that all necessary steps had been taken.

This is the message United Gas directs to America's leading industrialists through advertisements in Time, Newsweek, United States News & World Report, Business Week and Wall Street Journal. The advertisement shown below is the most recent in a series that started more than 20 years ago! This is one of many ways in which United Gas "serves the Gulf South."

Industrial construction presently planned for the Gulf South area served by United Gas is valued at some $3.5 billion—more than one-fifth of the engineering construction proposed for the entire United States. Contracts were let in the first half of this year for some $200,000,000 of industrial building in the dynamic Gulf South. There's little wonder that United Gas shares the optimism and enthusiasm of all business of the area. The Gulf South would be a great place to build your new plant. Statistics by McGraw-Hill

Bay hi news ..

By Paula Crider

It is easy to imagine that one sleigh bells as the junior and senior girls rehearsing Christmas pageant through the halls, and the local businessmen preparing for the Annual Christmas pageant Friday night and under way and we hope our parents will come to this program.

The championship football team and their dates are looking forward to the big dinner at the North Hotel in Gulfport. The school board and the local businessmen are preparing to show their appreciation of the fine season team had this year.

The Bay High girls' basketball team participated in the Savannah finals and played very good game, but lost by points, 23-21. Logtown decided both the boys and girls the junior team by small margin.

The Junior Garden Club met today to make last minute arrangements for the Christmas flower show. Some of the girls demonstrated the various types and arrangements they will compete for blue ribbon in the junior class.

Lee explained that "eligible" are all persons who, as landlords, tenants, or sharecroppers, engaged in the production of cotton or rice in 1959. The question about eligibility will be checked with the county clerk.

The purpose of this referendum is to determine whether or not marketing quotas will be in effect for the 1960 crop of cotton and rice, so be sure to vote, if interested.

WHO DONE IT???

We hear that a certain most dignified English teacher recently purchased a set of bongo drums.

The Bay High School band, directed by Marcel La Nasa, and the senior chorus led by Mrs. Toy Tedford, presented the program for the Bay-Central Parent-Teacher Association at its meeting Tuesday night at the school. After a violin solo by the band director, the entire audience joined in a community sing of seasonal selections and refreshments were served later by fourth grade mothers in the homemaking department.

Mrs. W. P. McCutcheon presided and announced that the executive committee, meeting that morning, had accepted the resignation from the presidency of Mrs. Egan Carroll, because of illness.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $251 after expenditures, mostly for repairs and purchase of new playground equipment. The Mardi Gras fund has a $481.87 balance and efforts of Charles Byrd toward repair of the trailers for the parade were applauded. A $100 outlay for new tires for the trailers was approved. This is the first year in some time that all of this equipment has been in first class shape, it was noted.

Superintendent J. D. McCullough announced plans for a football banquet Dec. 21 in Gulfport. Dr. Franklin Atkinson, pastor of First Baptist Church, gave the opening prayer.

Twelfth—Sherry Ladner, David Lee, Carl Moran Jr., Frances Lemmett Moran, Barney Necaise and Danny Sue Peterson.

City Schools...

Favre Jr., prepare a resolution authorizing purchase of two lots owned by Richard R. Burge to serve as an entrance to the proposed athletic field in back of the new school. Negotiations had been started by Trustee Robert Hamilton.

Dr. W. P. Henderson warned that unless the board authorized purchase of enough land, while it is available, to provide adequate driveways to handle crowds attending football games and other events, the board would be subject to severe criticism from the public in the future. He suggested that each trustee walked over the land during the weekend and get together in an effort to decide on what land is needed for roadways.

Resolutions were adopted authorizing Superintendent McCullough to borrow $35,000 to defray payrolls and other expenses until the school receives its share of tax money. McCullough said this procedure has been followed for many years and that $10,000 was loaned this year by City Commission Council without interest. The balance will be borrowed from banks.

Hamilton reminded the board that Bay High has the Gulf Coast Conference championship football team and suggested honoring the players and coaches with a banquet.

McCullough said he had talked with the superintendent of the new school construction job, who said he intended to use as many local people as possible without interfering with union contracts.

An examination of school insurance policies revealed that approximately $150 could be saved by contracting on a five-year basis and McCullough said he will contact the agents again.

McCullough said there was about six or seven hundred yards of dirt available from excavation at the new school site to fill low spots on the property. Artiques suggested at least two local haulers be contacted and the best price be accepted for moving the dirt where needed.

Holiday Lighting Contest Plans Announced by B-W Garden Club

Plans for the traditional Christmas lighting contest sponsored by the Bay-Waveland Garden Club have been announced by Mrs. Charles Beyer, chairman.

Judging of the entries will take place Christmas night by a team of out of town judges. Anyone desiring to enter the competition is to call Mrs. Beyer at HO7-5358 to record their entry. She explained this is necessary because of the large territory involved so that judges do not miss any location where an exhibit has been prepared.

Ribbons will be awarded as prizes with the grand sweepstakes away to go to the best overall entry.

Other prize classifications include the best doorway, best outdoor tree, best window, best rooftop, best porch tree and best business establishment display.

The sweepstakes winner last year was Mrs. Frank Kiefer for her home illumination.

Mrs. Beyer urged all residents as well as business establishments to participate by preparing special Yuletide displays, thus contributing to the spirit of the holiday season. Because of the attractive business displays, won last year by Hancock Bank, it was decided to continue that competition, she said.

Cedar Point 4-H Club has Yule Fete

The Cedar Point 4-H Club held a Christmas party when it met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Linda Merritt with Kathleen Schaefer presiding and leading the 4-H pledge.

Yvonne and Gloria Kimmel were assigned to conduct a demonstration on good grooming for the next meeting, the second Tuesday of January at 4:15 at their home.

Auxiliary Meets

The American Legion auxiliary will hold its monthly meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the Legion Home. Christmas gifts will be exchanged at the conclusion of the session, according to Mrs. Gilbert Gayant, president.

Wood and Pulp

Reforestation plays an important part in the industrial development of Mississippi.

Within the memory of many of us much of South Mississippi was cut-over stump-land. Forests now occupy more of the state's area than all other land uses combined; 57 percent of the entire state is forested; 229 million seedlings have been planted in the past ten years. Farmers own 43 percent of these woodlands, wage earners and businessmen 32 percent, wood-using industries 15 percent and public agencies scarcely 10 percent.

Already Mississippi ranks first among all the states in hardwood pulpwood production.

The 133,000 owners of small private woodlands hold the key to Mississippi's forest future, as trees become a major crop in the economy of our people. Timber, once manufactured into lumber, crossties and light poles, is now processed into newsprint, kraft paper, cartons, wallboard, furniture, plastics and various other wood products in the state.

Electricity, with which we pioneered in Mississippi, is the energizing force that has made this transition possible. Electricity provides the light and power that produces payrolls, transforms wood into new wealth and promotes the prosperity of our people. Trees and electricity are vital to our growing economy.

Billion Dollar Christmas

Christmas Savings Clubs over the nation have distributed One Billion Four Hundred and Five Million Dollars between Thanksgiving and the Holidays to break all past records.

This gratifying increase for the 1959 club prompted its president to say, "Evidently the American people are aware that economic strength is as vital as guns and missiles because they are constantly taking steps to insure their individual security."

Hancock Bank which pioneered in promoting the Christmas Savings Club idea forty-five years ago, and has continued sponsoring clubs ever since, except for the interruption of World War I, has seen this annual savings idea grow into a sizable sum, to double within the past ten years.

On Wednesday, November 25, the day before Thanksgiving, checks to Hancock Bank members were mailed totaling $434,544.13, a substantial increase over 1958.

On the basis of past experience, Christmas Club money is used for many worthwhile purposes. About 30 per cent of it goes into permanent savings and investments, 10 per cent of it is used for taxes, 7 per cent to pay bills, and 2 per cent for miscellaneous expenditures.

For whatever purpose the Christmas Savings Club money may be employed we have the testimony of our members over the years that it comes in mighty handy.

Our 1960 Christmas Savings Club will open Monday, November 30. No account is too small, from 25 cents a week up, and deposits may be made at Hancock Bank in Gulfport, Long Beach, Bay Saint Louis and Pass Christian. And our Mississippi City - Handsboro office will be open to serve Coast savers.

The weeks that lie between Thanksgiving and Christmas are the happiest of the year; we have so much to be thankful for and to look forward to.

Why not join with the other 4,693 Mississippi Gulf Coast residents who are among our 1959 club members and make 1960 bigger and better? Consistent saving is a good habit. Cultivate it, and make your 1960 Christmas a happier and more prosperous occasion.

Tigers Trip Pass, Win 2 of 3 Games

Bay High's basketball Tigers invaded the Pass Christian Pirates' cage Tuesday night and emerged with two victories out of three games.

The boys' varsity started slowly winning the first quarter by a slim margin of one point but picked up speed and took the final quarter by a healthy 11 points.

Although fouling out early in the final quarter, Barry Stephens chalked up high score for the Tigers with 16. All-conference football star Bill Watts hit the bucket for 12 and Ronnie Peterson scored 10.

Score by quarters:
Bay High 9 13 13 21 - 56
Pass Christian 8 8 14 10 - 40

Despite losing the second game, the Tigerettes served notice they intend to be a contender in the girls' conference by holding highly rated Pass Christian to 48 points while they accumulated 44. The lasses from Bay High came from behind to tie the Pirates 42-42 at the end of the game but gave up 4 points in the 2-minute overtime period. Coach William Seymour is happy with the fine showing made by the girls, especially the defensive play of Vidalia Schultz, Nita Kay Erwin and Aline Hobbs.

Coming into the game in the second quarter, Susan Doring lead the Tigerette scoring with 17 points. Virginia Brelend hit the basket for 15.

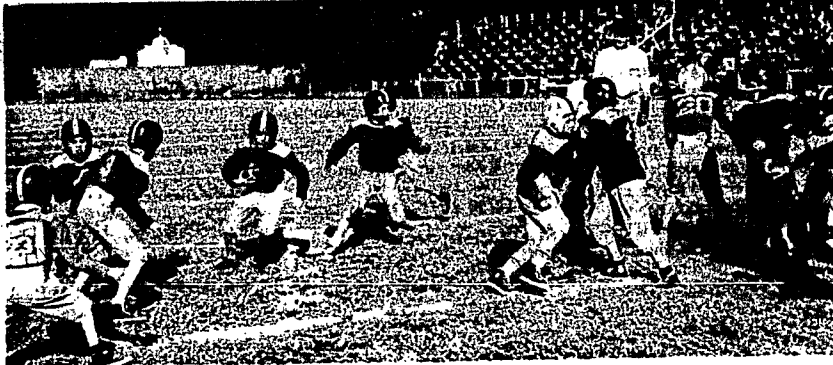

Sharon Ladner lead the Pirates with 23 including 4 made in the overtime period which gave the Pass lasses the game.

The B team made every quarter a winner except the last to lick the Pass Bs 38-23. High scorer for Bay High was Ronnie Peterson with 14. Woody Allison made 12 and Milton Bernard 10.

Miss America Sets Visit to Coast City

THIS YOUNG FLEA CARRIES THROUGH THE LINE FOR GAIN IN FIRST QUARTER

Griffin Breaks Lose To Lead Fly Victory

Flea-Fly football history was made Sunday afternoon in Stanislaus Stadium when Gary Griffin shook off a number of pesky Fleas and broke loose twice in the second quarter to pace the Flies to a 31-15 victory in their annual pigskin classic.

Griffin scampered 60 yards around right end for his first tally and got loose again for 30 and his second TD.

For Brother Marius' Fleas, touchdowns were made by Joe Selle and M. J. Rhodes. Alpha DeRouen converted. Brother Roger's big team scored a safety in the last quarter.

Anthony Cemo, of Brother Edward's Flies, scored the first tally of the game and Harold Hueschen came through with the second 6-pointer. Odelle Saucier's middle team added 7 points and Griffin, playing with Brother Lester's squad added 12.

The contest opened with both squads tackling hard, causing several fumbles in the opening minutes. The Flies got possession and a 40-yard pass from Cemo to Rhodes put the ball on the Fleas 18. Rhodes went for a couple of short gains but a penalty put it on the 21 from where Cemo went around left end on a fake for the initial Next Tuesday's luncheon hostess is Mrs. Phillip Luzzza.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'
By Eddie Englehorn

Howling north winds during the weekend kept most sportsmen home but clearing skies Monday brought out a few lucky anglers and fishing was good for the rest of the week. The weekend winds were even too much for the hardy duck hunters and many sportsmen wound up Sunday afternoon under blankets at Stanislaus Stadium for the Flea-Fly classic.

Rabbit hunters have been getting their share of the fleet puddle-jumpers and we hear that Leroy Luke had a field day recently.

W. L. Fox of Jacksonville, who comes here twice a year to fish, caught a good string of green trout and brim near Ansley before returning to Florida. He was unable to get any shrimp so he and his fishing partner, Mrs. B. E. Murray of Gulfport, dug some worms.

Winter fishing in the Jordan continues to be good and Fred Garner caught 18 specs Monday trolling and using live bait.

Joseph (Cotton) Blaize, chemical engineer for an oil company, is here on vacation and says he intends to fish every day. Monday he caught 11 nice trout in Bayou Caddy trolling. Tuesday was good for 20.

A 7 1/2 pound red was caught by inveterate angler Claiborne (Teb) Fayard in Bayou Caddy Monday. He also strung up 15 pounds of speckled trout using live bait.

Probably the most avid basketball fan in this area is Hayward Ladner who keeps score for the North Central Hawks. He never misses a game and if the Hawks aren't playing attends one of the other schools' games. Hayward expects nothing less than the state championship for his favorites.

Hawk Quintet Cops 1st Tourney

North Central's Hawks defeated their toughest foe this year Saturday beating Carriere 40-33 for their 10th consecutive win of the season and the Savannah Tournament championship, the first tourney of the year.

The Hawks were not up to their usual form and lost the last quarter 5-1, scoring only once and then on a free shot. Both teams played a defensive game as indicated by the low score. High scorer Douglas Necaise fouled out in the third quarter while Donald Necaise was benched in the final period.

Douglas hit the bucket for 10 points, Donald 9, Barney 9, Wayne 6, Berlin 4 and John 2.

For Carriere, Larry Palmer made 10, Roland Summers 13, Woodie Spiers 4, Claiborne Cooper 3 and Hooper Farmer 3. Douglas and Donald Necaise were awarded medals for being selected to the all-tournament quintet.

Score by quarters:
N. Central 11 14 14 1-40
Carriere 9 7 12 5-33

The North Central lads had no trouble with Poplarville in the semi-final Friday night and breezed to a 66-28 victory, winning every quarter. They piled up a 16-point lead in the opening quarter and were never headed, leading 38-11 at the half.

Douglas Necaise took top honors with 17 points, Barney made 12, Donald 8, John 8, Berlin 8, Wayne 6, Donald Ray 3 and McCoy Peterson 4.

For Poplarville, M. Smith 11, L. Williams 6, M. Kirby 4, R. Young 2, B. Coleman 2, M. Parker 2 and J. Ferte 1.

SJA Takes 4 Straight

St. Joseph's Academy regained its winning form, taking four consecutive games during the past week.

Tuesday at Ocean Springs they won two, the varsity triumphing to the tune of 59-38. It was the first game for Captain Frankie Matherne since she received an eye injury in the Pass Christian game. She is waiting for new plastic glasses to be made and played Tuesday without glasses.

Mary Jo Criegee scored 18 points although only playing three quarters. Elizabeth Criegee hit the basket for 21 points, Frankie scored 8, Judy Favre 8, Cassie Rhodes 3 and Yvonne Artigues 1.

Score by quarters:
SJA 15 12 14 18-59
Ocean Springs 7 12 9 10-38
The SJA varsity now has a record of 7 wins against 1 loss. The correct score of the Pass Christian game, SJA's only defeat of the season, was 49-45.

The junior squad took the opener of the double-header 20-13. High scorer was Diane Griffin 10, Cassie Rhodes made 6 and Yvonne Artigues 4. Defensive stars were Beth Murtagh, Lindy Orlin and Janice Noto.

Saturday the SJA lasses gave the Sacred Heart Academy quintet a 50-28 drubbing in New Orleans but lost their star guard, Margo Jacob, who sprained her ankle.

High scorers were Mary Jo Criegee with 21, Elizabeth Criegee 19 and Judy Favre 10. Sheila Gotschalk, Sheila Smurdivant and Yvonne Artigues did a fine job at guard.

The juniors romped in the opener 28-12. Cassie Rhodes scored 13, Diane Griffin 8 and Georgette Stelz 4.

He scored one field goal in the first period, seven in both the second and third and three in the final although he was benched by coach James Johnson most of the quarter.

The Harrison Red Rebels, determined to overcome the powerful Hawks, jumped to an early lead but the quarter ended with North Central leading by one point and never headed for the remainder of the game although they won the third quarter by only 3 points and the fourth by 2. They salted away the game in the second period which they won by 11 points when Douglas went wild.

Douglas scored 39 points, Donald 8, John 8, Wayne 6, Berlin 4 and John 2.
